The January number of "Boys Life," the Boy Scouts' magazine, con-tains an article on the "Relics of the Pony Express." which article is illus-Pony Express," which article is illustrated with reproductions of old stamps in demand by collectors, and also by a letter of the kind in use before the days of envelopes. The letter happens to bear the postmark of "Yorkville, S. C." It is addressed to "Messrs, Hull & Spencer, New York," and in addition to the address carries. and in addition to the address carries the notation, "Charge Box 47, S. & I." Ten cents, the amount of the postage is stamped on the right hand corner of the envelope at the top, and the word "paid" is printed beside the stamp. The envelope as it is known today, did not come into use until 1847, and this old letter was evidently sent befare that time. There is noth-ing to indicate the name of the send-ing firm unless it is the "S. & I."

Linwood College Matron Dead. Gastonia Gazette, Dec. 24: A message that was received here from Cherokee Falls, S. C., bearing the sad intelligence of the death at that place Wednesday afternoon of Mrs. Rosa H. Allgood, formerly of Gastonia, brough sorrow to many hearts. Mrs. All good, who was matron at Linwood college, had been ill about six weeks. She was a patient in the city hospital here for three or four weeks and left last Friday for Cherokee Falls to be at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Flora Hancock. It was known that she was quite sick but her friends did not realize that she was in a critical condition, hence the news of her death came as a shock. Mrs. Allgood's body arrived on No. 46 Tuesday and was taken to the First Baptist church where funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock by her former pastor, Rev. W. C. Barrett, following which the body was interred in Hollywood cemetery. A large number of friends were present at the funeral. Carroll-Fanning.

In the presence of a few close re-latives of the contracting parties, Miss Josie Carroll was married to Mr. Walter L. Fanning of Shelby, N. C., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad. L. Carroll on Yorkville No. 7 Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. L. Oates. The home of the bride was very prettily decorated with holiday colors for the occasion. Mrs. Robert T. Allison, sister of the bride received the guests sister of the bride received the guests at the door where they were ushered in by Messrs. J. F. and Roy Carroll, brothers of the bride. Mrs. J. L. Oates presided at the piano accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Glenn of Chester on the violin in rendering Schubert's serenade. There were no attendants. The bride wore a pretty coat suit of blue and carried roses and ferns. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Carroll and is well known in Yorkville where she has spent much of her time with her sisters here. Mr. Fanning is a popular shoe salesman whose headquarters are at Shelby. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fanning left by automobile for Chester from which place they went on a honeymoon trip, their destination being unknown to their

York County Man Killed. Mr. C. S. Good, a native of York county, but who for a number of years past has resided near Greenville, met instant death Monday when he was struck by a Piedmont and Northern car in Greenville. The following account of the tragic accident is from the Greenville News of Tuesday: C. S. Good, a prominent farmer of Oakvale, was almost instantly killed yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock when a southbound Piedmont and Northern southbound Piedmont and Northern a southbound Fredmont and Northern train struck the buggy in which he was riding, at the crossing between Brandon and Charles. At this cross-ing an automatic warning is maintained, and informal testimony is to the effect that the signal was working as usual. The crossing is not in the clear, the railroad being partly in a cut, and the dirt road being graded so as to come down to the level of the tracks through a quasicut. Train No. Is struck the buggy this train being. tained, and informal testimony is to in charge of Motorman McHugh and Conductor C. P. Murroughs. It is said that the train was running about 20 to 25 miles an hour, and that when some 400 yards from the crossing, a light loomed up, showing that the automatic signal was working. This train left Greenville at ten minutes before five o'clock. The buggy in which Mr. Good was riding was aphim. The P. N. ran a special train carrying medical assistance, but the victim of the accident was dead before the doctors arrived. A fracture of the skull is believed to have killed him. His body was not mangled, as the train did not run over him. He was knocked about fifteen feet by the impact. Motorman McHugh stated that he saw the vehicle when about a car length ahead of him. His train consisted of two cars. He applied the reverse brakes, throwing passengers from their seats, and stopping the train some fifty yards from the crossing. So vigorously were the brakes applied that the train was disabled. Mr. Good had come to Greenville, so it is said, to get two cows, which were stolen from his place recently, and one of which belonged to him. On Sunday night he and Sheriff Rector had located the cows. Some negro men were driving them back to Oakvale, and Mr. Good was riding back in his buggy when the accident occurred. It is said that the mule was traveling at a rapid gait, and some presume that the animal became frightened at the ringing of the signal bell, and plunged in front of the train. Mr. Good did not speak after the accident, and died fifteen minutes after being struck. Mr. Good, who was a widower, was a member of a well known family. He was raised in York county, where several members of his family now reside. He has one brother in Greenville, Mr. C. C. Good, and one on, Fred Good, who is home for the olidays from college. olidays from college. Other brothers re Messrs. J. W. H. Good, Hickory
